Miss Teena Weatherall, who has recently visited her uncle, George Powers, was married on November 11 to George Hiltz of Spangher, Canada, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Powers.

The bride was lovely in a gown of white georgette, with veil of lace and seed pearls and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

About fifty guests were present, bringing many nice gifts. The following day the happy couple left for Toronto, where they will spend some time. The bride's traveling costume was purple crepe-de-chine with pale yellow trimmings, hat to match, and a black Manila coat. The groom's gift to the bride. We wish them much happiness.

WOODSTOCK

Albert T. Silver Mistaken for a Deer and Fatally Shot.

Albert T. Silver of Woodstock was mistaken for a deer and fatally shot by his son, Charles H. Silver, while they were hunting with John Cox of Norway and Charles S. Smith of Woodstock, about three o'clock Thursday afternoon, Nov. 26.

A misunderstanding in plans caused A. T. Silver to take another trail, and his son, seeing an object moving in the thicket, fired two shots, wounding his father in the abdomen and the arm, resulting in his death about fifteen minutes later.

Mr. Silver was born in Orono 53 years ago, the son of Hiram and Mary E. (Washburn) Silver, his mother now being Mrs. Andrew Rose of Woodstock. For many years he was a shoe laster in Norway, moving to this town about twenty-five years ago.

He is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. Charles Swinton, Mrs. Charles Cash, and Mrs. John Cox, and two sons, Harry and Charles. He will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends, whose sympathy goes out to the bereaved family.

The funeral was held Sunday at 2 o'clock, at the Union church, with interment in the family lot near the church. Rev. O. D. Cardy of Portland spoke words of comfort to the bereaved family. Mr. Silver was a member of the church.

It is understood that no legal action will be taken in the matter of the shooting until it is presented to the grand jury at the next term of court.
